Celebrando Fiestas Patrias

Dear PACCLI Members and Friends,

July is one of the most meaningful months of the year for our community. It is a time to celebrate our Peruvian heritage, honor our traditions, and recognize the many contributions Peruvians continue to make throughout Long Island, New York, and beyond.

This month, we proudly celebrate Peruvian Independence Day with our annual ceremony at the Nassau County Legislature on July 23, a tradition that PACCLI has led and supported for the past ten years. This celebration reflects our commitment to preserving our culture while strengthening our presence and leadership in the United States.

July has also been an extraordinary month of visibility and community engagement for PACCLI. We proudly participated in the Peruvian Parade in Queens, celebrating our heritage alongside thousands of Peruvians and friends of Peru.

PACCLI was also honored to participate aboard the traditional Buque Unión, Peru's iconic training ship, during the celebration of the 250th Anniversary of the United States. This historic event highlighted the enduring friendship between Peru and the United States and showcased the important role of our Peruvian-American community.

As part of this celebration, PACCLI was recognized as one of the 250 organizations featured in the commemorative Tribune, an honor that reflects our twenty years of service and our growing impact within the business and Hispanic communities.

Another memorable moment was our participation in the White Gala hosted by Latina Sisters Support Inc., where PACCLI received a special recognition in celebration of our 20 years of empowering entrepreneurs and serving the Hispanic community. This recognition belongs to every volunteer, board member, sponsor, and member who has contributed to our mission over the past two decades.

PACCLI also continues expanding opportunities for our members through new strategic partnerships. This month, we strengthened our collaborations with organizations such as the Hamptons Business Expo, SUMAQ, and PROMPERÚ, whose participation in the recent international food event created valuable opportunities to promote Peruvian businesses, tourism, gastronomy, and entrepreneurship while expanding networking opportunities for our members.

As we celebrate our twentieth anniversary throughout the year, we are also preparing for our 20th Anniversary Gala on October 30, an evening dedicated not only to celebrating our history but also to investing in our future. Proceeds from the Gala will help support our Youth Entrepreneur Boot Camp, empowering the next generation of entrepreneurs and reinforcing our commitment to creating economic opportunity within our community.

Thank you for your continued trust, commitment, and support. Together, we are building stronger businesses, stronger partnerships, and a stronger community. Every achievement we celebrate is the result of working together under one shared vision:

No Entrepreneur Left Behind.

Happy Peruvian Independence Month!

With gratitude,

Dr. Elsa-Sofía Morote

Himno Nacional

Somos libres, seámoslo siempre
y antes niegue sus luces el sol,
que faltemos al voto solemne
que la patria al Eterno elevó.

En su cima los Andes sostengan la bandera o pendón bicolor, que a los siglos anuncie el esfuerzo que ser libres, por siempre nos dió.
A su sombra vivamos tranquilos,
y al nacer por sus cumbres el sol,
renovemos el gran juramento
que rendimos al Dios de Jacob...
(al Dios de Jacob)

Somos libres, seámoslo siempre
y antes niegue sus luces el sol,
que faltemos al voto solemne
que la patria al Eterno elevó.

What Does Having the Marca Perú License Mean for PACCLI?- by Dr. Elsa-Sofia Morote

On May 25, 2026- PACCLI was granted de MARCA PERU by PROMPERU. Obtaining the Marca Perú license is a significant achievement for PACCLI and a recognition of our commitment to promoting Peru's culture, entrepreneurship, and values in the United States.

Marca Perú is the official country brand of Peru, created to showcase the best of our nation to the world. It represents excellence, innovation, cultural richness, gastronomy, tourism, and the entrepreneurial spirit of Peruvians everywhere.

By receiving authorization to use Marca Perú, PACCLI can:

- Officially associate its programs and events with one of Peru's most recognized and respected national symbols.
- Promote Peruvian culture, products, and businesses with the support and prestige of the Peru country brand.
- Strengthen its credibility and visibility among government agencies, businesses, and community organizations.
- Showcase Peru's positive image while supporting Peruvian entrepreneurs and professionals in the United States.
- Develop events, educational programs, and business initiatives aligned with the values of innovation, pride, and excellence represented by Marca Perú.

For PACCLI, Marca Perú is more than a logo—it is a symbol of trust and a commitment to serve as an ambassador of Peru abroad. It reinforces our mission to empower entrepreneurs, build community, and ensure that no entrepreneur is left behind.

This achievement also places PACCLI among a select group of organizations authorized to carry and promote the image of Peru internationally, strengthening the ties between Peru and the Peruvian-American community.

LOW EMPLOYMENT      07/0726

By Isaac Cohen*

The creation of only 57,000 new jobs in June, announced last week by the U.S. Labor Department, was less than the monthly average of 92,000 jobs created during the first half of this year, but much better than the monthly average of 8,000 jobs lost during the second half of last year. The unemployment rate came down to 4.2 percent, from 4.3 percent, generating concern because less persons were working or looking for a job, this is known as the “labor force participation rate,” which fell in June to 61.5 percent, the lowest since 2021. Some of the reasons for the reduction of the labor force are the retirement of the baby-boomer generation and the increased deportations of foreign workers climbing to 2,000 a day. In June, the civilian labor force reached 169 million people, 2.2 million less than the highest level reached in November. From May to June, the size of the labor force decreased by 720,000 workers.

By sectors, healthcare and social assistance continued leading job creation, with 47,000 new jobs, followed by professional and business services with around 40,000. However, wages increased by only 3.5 percent, while inflation exceeded 4 percent on an annual basis. This justifies the priority of achieving price stability set by Kevin Warsh, the new head of the central bank.

EMPLEO LENTO      07/07/26

Por Isaac Cohen*

La creación de apenas 57,000 nuevos empleos en junio, anunciada por el Departamento de Trabajo de Estados Unidos, fue menor que el promedio mensual de 92,000 empleos creados durante la primera mitad de este año, pero mucho mejor que el promedio mensual de 8,000 empleos perdidos durante la segunda mitad del año pasado. La tasa de desempleo descendió a 4.2 por ciento, desde 4.3 por ciento, generando preocupación porque menos personas están trabajando o buscando empleo, lo cual se conoce como la “tasa de participación en la fuerza laboral,” que cayó en junio a 61.5 por ciento, la más baja desde 2021. Algunas de las razones que explican la reducción en la fuerza laboral son las jubilaciones de la generación nacida después de la Segunda Guerra Mundial, así como las crecientes deportaciones de trabajadores extranjeros, las cuales ascendieron a 2,000 por día. En junio, la fuerza de trabajo civil llegó a 169 millones de personas, 2.2 millones menos que el nivel más alto alcanzado en noviembre. Entre mayo y junio, el tamaño de la fuerza laboral disminuyó en 720,000 trabajadores.

Por sectores, la salud y la asistencia social continuaron conduciendo la creación de empleo, con 47,000 nuevos puestos de trabajo, seguidos por los servicios profesionales y comerciales con alrededor de 40,000 trabajadores. Sin embargo, los salarios aumentaron sólo 3.5 por ciento, mientras que la inflación superó 4 por ciento sobre una base anual. Esto justifica la prioridad de alcanzar la estabilidad de precios, identificada por Kevin Warsh, el nuevo jefe del banco central.

OIL FALLS                      06/30/26

CAE EL PETROLEO                      06/30/26

By Isaac Cohen*

It is remarkable how oil prices started falling as soon as the agreement on a temporary cease fire was signed, on June 14, by Iran and the United States. As a result of the conflict, oil prices crossed the barrier of more than $100 per barrel but following increased traffic out of the Strait of Hormuz, last week, the price fell to around $70 per barrel a reduction of 36 percent, close to $67 in February, the price before the conflict started.

The price of gasoline lags, falling in the United States to less than $4 per gallon, still $1 above the price that prevailed in February, before the conflict started. The White House immediately complained, blaming the big oil companies for “gouging,” because the price of gasoline has not gone down as much as crude prices. The American Petroleum Institute, representative of the oil companies said, “gasoline prices do not move in lockstep with crude oil, especially during a major global disruption that is still affecting supply, refining and inventories.” (The Wall Street Journal 06/25/26). President Trump said he had instructed the Justice Department to investigate.

Anyway, if the truce holds keeping open the Strait of Hormuz, while the ongoing negotiations fructify, the downward trend in oil prices will persist.

CAE EL PETROLEO 06/30/26

Por Isaac Cohen*

Es notable como los precios del petróleo comenzaron a caer tan pronto como fue firmado el cese de fuego temporal, el 14 de junio, entre Irán y Estados Unidos. Como resultado del conflicto, los precios del petróleo cruzaron la barrera de $100 por barril, pero ante el aumento del tráfico hacia afuera del Estrecho de Ormuz, la semana pasada el precio disminuyó a cerca de $70 por barril, una reducción de 36 por ciento cercana a $67 en febrero, el precio anterior al conflicto.

El precio de la gasolina está rezagado, cayó en Estados Unidos a menos de $4 por galón, todavía $1 arriba del precio que prevaleció en febrero, antes del inicio del conflicto. La Casa Blanca se quejó inmediatamente, culpando a las grandes empresas petroleras de “manipuleo,” porque el precio de la gasolina no ha bajado tanto como los precios del crudo. El Instituto Americano del Petróleo, representante de las empresas petroleras dijo, “los precios de la gasolina no marchan al mismo paso que el petróleo crudo, especialmente durante un desorden mayor que todavía está afectando la oferta, la refinación y los inventarios.” (The Wall Street Journal 06/25/26). El presidente Trump dijo que le pidió al Departamento de Justicia que inicie una investigación.

Como sea, si la tregua se sostiene manteniendo abierto el Estrecho de Ormuz, mientras que fructifican las negociaciones en curso, persistirá la tendencia bajista de los precios del petróleo.

Mensaje por el 28 de Julio en Long Island
by Diana Argote, PACCLI directora, NOVO Marketing CEO

Queridos compatriotas peruanos y amigos:

Cada 28 de julio nuestro corazón late con más fuerza al recordar el día en que nació una nación libre. Hace 205 años, don José de San Martín proclamó la Independencia del Perú, sembrando en nuestro pueblo los valores de libertad, dignidad y esperanza.

Aunque la vida nos haya llevado lejos de nuestra tierra, la distancia jamás ha logrado disminuir el amor que sentimos por el Perú y hemos venido a aportar con esos mismos valores. En Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens, Long Island y cada rincón de Nueva York donde hay un peruano, siguen vivos nuestros colores, nuestras tradiciones, nuestra gastronomía, nuestra música y, sobre todo, el espíritu trabajador de nuestra gente.

En nombre de la Peruvian American Chamber of Commerce of Long Island (PACCLI), queremos expresar nuestro más cálido saludo y profundo reconocimiento a cada peruano que, con dedicación y perseverancia, honra a nuestra patria, aportando y construyendo un mejor futuro sin olvidar nuestros raíces.

Ustedes. representan lo mejor del Perú: el coraje de quien enfrenta nuevos desafíos, la generosidad de quien extiende la mano a los demás y la esperanza de quien nunca deja de creer en un mañana mejor.

Que estas Fiestas Patrias fortalezcan nuestro orgullo de ser peruanos, renueven nuestro compromiso con la solidaridad, y nos inspiren a seguir siendo embajadores de nuestra cultura y ejemplo de trabajo para las futuras generaciones. Donde haya un peruano que ahí viva el Perú!

¡Felices Fiestas Patrias!
